1. Resolution 2013-87

Dog Control

There was much discussion about how to handle dog sheltering and dog pickup which could possibly be operated by two separate entities.

The Board decided to authorize the attorney and the supervisor to engage in a conversation with the Towns of Lewiston and Wilson to discuss the dog control situation. The attorney was also directed to draw up a contract/proposal for the resident who would possibly shelter the animals.

Councilman White made a motion to adjourn the work session, at 9:15 a.m. Joe Fleckenstein seconded that motion. The motion was carried unanimously.
